York Civic Trust

York Civic Trust

York Civic Trust is a membership organisation open to all who wish to protect and enhance York's architectural and cultural heritage, to champion good design and to advance the high place which York holds amongst the cities of the world. Founded in 1946, it has the key objectives of “Promoting Heritage—Shaping Tomorrow” at the heart of its work. Over the years the York Civic Trust has put up over a hundred information plaques to the places and people of York and continues to do so today in collaboration with its City Enhancement Fund, with the aims to preserve, restore, enrich, enhance and sustain the centre of York.

Plaques

York Civic Trust has been placing commemorative plaques to places and people on buildings since the late 1940s. There are now some eighty plaques, in bronze, wood, slate and aluminium spread around the city (and one in Amsterdam). The majority mark buildings or places of interest, but there are many to influential people with York connections.
