

TEMPORAL & SPIRITUAL JOURNEYS IN LATE MEDIEVAL AND EARLY MODERN EUROPE

Thursday 20 May 2021

An Online Event - Free of Charge
Places are limited and registration is required.
All times quoted are Ireland time.

9:45am: Welcome
Dr Benjamin Hazard
(University College Dublin)

10.00am
Session 1: Franciscan Evangelists

Chair: Dr Malgorzata Krasnodebska-D'Aughton
(University College Cork)

Dr Francis Young (Independent Scholar)
'Mendicant Missionary Journeys in Late Medieval and Early Modern Lithuania'

Andrea Mancini (University of Leeds)
'Bernardino Aquilano's Travels in his *Cronica
Fratrum Minorum Observantiae*'

Pawel Cholewicki (University of Leeds)
'The Significance of the Itinerary of James of the Marches for Central-Eastern Europe, 1432-1440'

11.10am: Coffee Break

11.25am
Session 2: Mendicant Reality

Chair: Professor Thomas O'Connor (Maynooth University)

fr. Viliam Štefan Dóci OP (President, Historical Institute of the Order of Preachers, Rome)
'Gregorius Pogrányi OP: Searching for a Better Life'

Dr Ian Campbell (Queen's University Belfast)
'Scotist Political Thought and the Right to Travel'

12.30pm: Lunch

2.00pm
Session 3: Spiritual Direction

Chair: Dr Arantza Mayo (Royal Holloway, University of London)

Sr Elizabeth Ruth Obbard ODC
'The 'Gad-About-Nun' Goes Travelling Inwards'

Dr Marianne Ritsema van Eck (Leiden University)
'Franciscan Modes of Early Modern Travel for Lay Readers'

Professor Mícheál Mac Craith (NUI Galway)
'Leuven to Rome: Flaithrí Ó Maolchonaire on the Spanish Road'

3.10pm: Coffee Break

3:30pm: Keynote Lecture

Chair: Professor John McCafferty (University College Dublin)

Dr Abigail Shinn (Goldsmiths, University of London)
'Journey of the Soul: Sir Tobie Matthew'

4.30pm: Close
Dr Benjamin Hazard (University College Dublin)

To register for the event:

<https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/temporal-and-spiritual-journeys-in-late-medieval-and-early-modern-europe-tickets-151788482437>